

Third Grade Reading Assignment 2010

Please bring the following to class on August 11:

1. A library card from the public library (we want to see it!)
2. A list of the books you read over the summer, including the title and author.
3. You may read whatever you like! Be ready to share your favorite book with your new classmates on the first day of school.

Complete the book report form (provided on previous page) and bring it to school with you on the first day. We'd like to see your book, too, (if you haven't already turned it back into the library). We will be sharing our favorites with the class on the first day of third grade.

5TH Grade 2010 Summer Reading Assignment

The following three (3) books are required to be read over the summer. Corresponding worksheets (provided on previous page) should be completed as books are read and ready to be turned in on the first day of school, Wednesday, August 11.

Island of the Blue Dolphins by Scott O'Dell

1. After reading the book, complete the attached worksheet, "Overcoming Obstacles."
2. After reading the Author's Note, write a paragraph about what you think about the book.

Frindle by Andrew Clements

After reading the book, complete the "Story Tree" activity. Be sure to follow the directions for each line carefully. Be sure to vary your words, and be creative!

Dear Mr. Henshaw by Beverly Cleary

You will be tested on this book. You may make notes for yourself as you read the book to help you remember the events.
